

ANDRIJA ŠTAMPAR SUMMER EDUCATIONAL & TUTORING SCHOOL (ASSETS)

Public Health Mentoring Summer School

What is ASSETS?

Today's public health challenges require more than technical expertise. They call for professionals who can translate evidence into policy, lead change, work across sectors and address inequities in complex political environments. ASSETS supports young public health professionals to build these skills through mentoring, peer learning and practical problem-solving.

Practical Information

Venue:

School of Public Health Andrija Štampar, School of Medicine, University of Zagreb, Croatia.

📍 Rockefeller Street 4, 10000 Zagreb, Croatia

Course Dates:

5 - 9th (optional 10th) July 2026

ASPHER Members:

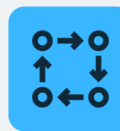

€750/pp single room
€500/pp shared room

Non-ASPHER Members:

€1000/pp single room

*Cost includes course, materials, lunch throughout the course, ASSETS dinner and accommodation.

What will I learn/do?

Research to Policy

Skills to drive impactful initiatives from research into implementation.

Health Equity

Strategies for addressing health determinants and inequities for better outcomes.

Change Leadership and Management

Approaches for navigating and driving change effectively in a dynamic world.

Daily Problem-based Workshops

Peer-to-peer learning and collaboration to address real-world issues.

With Ongoing Mentoring

Guidance from prestigious experts in European and Global public health.

Interested?
Contact us

assets@aspher.org