

Friday 17 July | 11:00-12:30

Poster presentations III

Between Accuracy and Game Play: Findings from Developing the Serious Game EDDi – Epidemic Disease Detective Hamburg - R. Reintjes

Gamifying Public Health Genomics Education: Development and Pilot Evaluation of the Jackaroo Game for Students and Healthcare Professionals - A. Alderei

Gamifying Genetics Education: Evaluating the Impact of the Customized Jackaroo Board Game on Student Knowledge in Genomics and Pharmacogenomics - A. Alderei

Video-Based Microlearning for Crisis and Pandemic Management in Public Health Education: A Transnational Development and Translation Case Study - A. Wojtecka

Comparative Analysis of Hospital Operational Plans and Development of a Standardized Framework for Emergency Department Improvement Plans in the Lombardy Region - S. Ancillai

Hospital Command Center Model in the context of the Milan–Cortina 2026 Winter Olympic Games: The experience of Niguarda Hospital - E. Bossi

Teaching about war: an essential for today's public health practitioner - C. Cunningham

“Refugee and Migrant Health in Practice” – utilizing 15 years of experience with an innovative course to build a better public health education in Europe - M. Cofta

From Immunology to Global Health: Designing an Integrated Vaccinology Training Program - L. Veltro

An Interprofessional Skills-based Training on Vaccine Hesitancy and Communication - A. Diana

The Role of Communication Format in Patient Comprehension and Behavioural Intentions in Health Communication: Insights from the Polish Context - J. Kulinska

Training for Public Health Professionals in Radiation Protection: What Topics Should Be Included? - A. Sprudzanaite

Residents' Knowledge of Healthy Nutrition Recommendations and Ambivalence Towards Adopting Healthier and More Sustainable Habits in Nine European Countries - D. Austys

Evaluating Public Attitudes Toward Healthy Nutrition and Physical Activity Promotion in Lithuania - G. Bulotaite

Educational deficits in the field of organ donation as a systemic barrier in Poland – the direction of public health education - M. Rakowski

AI(d) for Global Assisted Reproductive Technology (ART) Registration - Research, Policy and Regulation - N. Davidovitch

Public health in undergraduate nursing curriculum - a proposed study to investigate students' and clinical supervisors' perceptions of violence against women and family violence contents in nursing education - L. Okenwa Emegwa

Strengthening Stroke Workforce Competencies: Aligning Continuing Medical Education with European Public Health Frameworks — Evidence from Georgia - T. Dzagnidze

Future-Proofing Medical Education: A Cross-Institutional Model for Integrating Deep Tech Innovation into Medical Curricula - M. Jevtic

Teaching philosophy in creativity and innovation in Public Health using statistical software R - M. Albalushi

How comparable are trends in breast cancer incidence and mortality rates between countries? - A. Magid

Assessing data quality and integrity as a core competency in public health education: lessons from a large oncology pathway dataset - D. Kiedik

Food Waste Reduction Following an Educational Intervention: A Before–After Analysis - N. Signorile

Changes in Anti-RBD IgG Responses Among Healthcare Workers Over Time During SARS-CoV-2 Variant Waves: A Single-Center Analysis - T. Alcauskas

Epidemiological stool culture monitoring of patients hospitalized in intensive care units, assessing patient colonization with Klebsiella pneumoniae and other multidrug resistant microorganisms - T. Alcauskas