

Friday 17 July | 13:30-15:00

Poster presentations IV

---

The ASPHER Core Curriculum Programme for Public Health: Evolution, Applications, and Contributions to Quality-assured Public Health Education and Training - M. Codd

Strategic reform of a Master of Public Health programme through international benchmarking and governance alignment: The Gdańsk Medical University experience - P. Metelska

Mapping ASPHER-Aligned Competencies Across Existing Master's Programmes: A Situational Analysis Supporting the Feasibility of a New Public Health Degree - E. Albanese

Curriculum mapping and modernisation of the undergraduate study course "Public Health": advancing competency-based learning - L. Springe

Aligning an Undergraduate Public Health Education Curriculum with the ASPHER Core Curriculum Programme – The BSc Public Health Sciences (BSc PHS), University College Cork - C. Cunningham

Developing innovative public health education in Romania: Establishing bachelor and master programs at Babeş-Bolyai University in Cluj-Napoca - M. Ungureanu

Building the public health workforce through doctoral education in the United Arab Emirates: Overview and outcomes of the first established PhD in program Public Health in United Arab Emirates - R.H. Al-Rifai

Development of a New Course: "Academic Skills for Doctoral Students in Public Health" - A. Rose

Public Health Medical Residency in Poland and Workforce Readiness: A Competency Mapping and Analysis of the Operationalisation of ASPHER Core Competences - M. Kozon

Public Health Education in Italian Degree Programmes: A National Survey on Essential Public Health Functions and Core Curriculum Development - M. Buffoli

The Art of Teamwork: Aligning Pedagogy and Practice for Public Health Students at Bordeaux school of public health - E. Verpillot

Swiss School of Public Health (SSPH+) Emerging Health Leaders: Skills Training and Leadership Courses - E. Reeves

Revalidating the Public Health Curriculum: Decolonisation, Disability Inclusion, and Epistemic Justice in an MPH Programme - L. Ghuneim

Curriculum Reform Under Political and Workforce Pressure: A U.S. Case Informing European Public Health Education - C. Watson

Solidarity, ethics and public health practice: teaching through contemporary case studies - N. Davidovitch

Governance for Rapid Curriculum Innovation: Applying PRINCE2-Informed Project Management to a Transnational Public Health Education Partnership - B. Gronek

From Partnership to Practice: A Co-Creation and Faculty-Development Model to Embed Hybrid PBL Modules in Public Health Curricula (2022–2024) - O. Kalinowska-Beszczyńska

How to apply the Universal Design for Learning guidelines to an online postgraduate health protection curriculum - J. Arnott

Interprofessional design for health promotion: a blended learning course for graduate and post-graduate students - C. Bellini

Benchmarking Public Health Education: The ASPHER Core Curriculum Programme Supporting APHEA Accreditation - D. Relic

Accreditation of Schools of Public Health: Strengthening Quality through the APHEA Framework - R. Calabretta

Accreditation as a lever for achieving maturity in public health education institutions - C.A. Dubois

Is There a Case for Excellence Accreditation in Countries with Mandatory National Accreditation? The Italian Pilot for Postgraduate Schools of Hygiene and Preventive Medicine - C. Signorelli