Young Researchers Forum 2026

Who is the Young Researchers Forum for?

The Young Researchers Forum (YRF) is meant for postgraduate students (MPH, MSc, MRes, PhD, etc) and early career researchers from any field of public health.

What does YRF offer?

The YRF has run continuously since 2009, and is specifically designed to provide you with the opportunity to present your work in a friendly, supportive forum and to receive feedback from mentors and peers.

When and Where is YRF?

The 2026 YRF will be held on 10 November in Bilbao, Spain as part of the EPH pre-conferences and will include a networking lunch.

Submit your abstract for YRF

Abstracts may be up to 500 words and should be of performed original research including at least preliminary results.

The deadline for submission is 15 September.

Please send abstract submissions to youngresearchersforum@aspher.org

Organiser

The YRF is organised by the Association of Schools of Public Health in the European Region (ASPHER) with prize support from the journal Public Health Reviews (PHR).
