Thursday 16 July | 17:00-18:30

Oral presentations V: Public Health Training and Development for Health Professionals

---

Leading Change in European Health Systems: Applying Design Thinking and Disruptive Innovation across Public Health Prevention and Hospitals - S. Colucci

Engaging Future Physicians in Public Health Research: An Overview of Research Proposals Developed During the Public Health Clerkship Program (2020–2024) - J. Nauman

From Link Professionals to Hospital-Wide Training: Evaluating a Cascade Model for Infection Prevention Education – C. Conflitti

From Needs Assessment to Training: Developing a Standardized Environmental Hygiene Protocol for Healthcare Assistants in a Hospital Setting - R. Nebbia

Integrating equity into Public Health training: an experimental laboratory on cancer diagnostic pathways - R. Cuciniello

Key Learnings and Perspectives of a Newly Implemented Sex-and Gender-based Medicine Modular Course Integrated Into the First-year Medical School Curriculum: a Mixed-method Survey - N. Bragazzi

Implementing a Sex and Gender-Conscious Medicine Curriculum: Student Reflections and Qualitative insights - R. Khamisy Farah

Professional Integration of International Physicians: Educational Approaches to Health Workforce Alignment in Germany - F. Jacobs